Acts of 1859-60.

The General Laws passed at the last session of the Legislature, can be had at this office, in pamphlet form, for $1 per copy. We send it to order by mail at this price, free of postage.

Q The high degree of interest already manifesting itself throughout the State in the organization of volunteer uniformed companies, as part of the Kentucky enrolled militia, promises to secure to our State an active, efficient, and well disciplined corps of citizen soldiery, sufficient for all the contingencies of the future. The success of the movement for a thorough re-organization of the militia, and the happiest practical operation of the act of the last Legislature are now secured beyond hazard of failure. The Kentucky State Guard is in rapid process of organization; and so great is the laudable emulation already excited between the various companies, that it will doubtless exceed, in military appearance and discipline, even the expectations of those who originated the measure. The Inspector General has found it impossible himself to attend the numerous applications of companies to be mustered into the service, and has deputized the aids of the Governor to that duty. As soon as a sufficient number are enrolled the Guard will be organized into battalions, regiments, and brigades, and the election of proper officers ordered. We anticipate the accomplishment of all this before the spring is over, so that the first military encampment can be ordered, at least as early as the next anniversary of American Independence.

We trust that upon such an occasion our city may have occasion for just pride at the appearance of the companies organized here. The "Governor's Guards," the "Frankfort Rifles," and the "Red Artillery" will be necessarily conspicuous in the corps, and should spare no effort to win admiration. Let their ranks be filled, and their discipline so perfect that they may excel all others in soldierly appearance and martial bearing. Our citizens should encourage and aid the enterprise of the young men, while all who have not joined should do so at once, if at all consistent with the other duties of life. Enrollment in these companies carries with it exemption from the military tax, besides a number of legal services more inconvenient to the business man than all the duties of the drill and parade.

HARPER FOR MAY.—This number completes the twentieth volume of Harper's new Monthly Magazine. It has become standard stock to name "Harper as "popular," "varied," "brilliant," "solid," and its illustrations as "spirited" and "artistic." We could say of the May number all that is required to make up a fair country puff, but the Magazine does not want it. It stands upon its own merits, and meets with its reward. It may be obtained at the bookstore of Keenon & Crutcher, Main street. Only 25 cents a copy.

Lieut. Gillis.—The Navy, has been detailed to take the observations of the solar July eclipse in Labrador. The War Department has been desirous to take advantage of the probable presence of the expedition for the exploration of the Yellow Stone river, commanded by Capt. W. F. Reynolds, of the Topographical Engineers, near the belt of total obscuration at the time of the eclipse, to have observations made in the interior of the continent, and as that belt is north of our Territory, and in the British possessions, application has been made to Lord Lyons for permission for a Government party to enter the British territory for the above purpose. Lord Lyons has replied, signifying in courteous terms the assent of his Government to the proposition.

ENROLLMENT.—The "Nelson Greys" of Bardstown, were mustered into the State Guard on Thursday last, by Col. C. D. Pennebaker, of Louisville. The following officers were re-elected: Captain—J. C. Wickliffe; 1st. Lieut.—N. A. Crouch; 2d. Lieut.—Howard Hynes; 3d. Lieut.—Wm. N. Beckham. After the election and enrollment, Col. Pennebaker addressed the company, which was happily responded to by Capt. Wickliffe.

It is proposed to hold a Democratic Convention at Irvine, Estill county, on the 15th of May, to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals for the First Appellate District.

The Editor of the Paducah Commercial says that Mose Harrell, the indefatigable city editor in the village of Cairo, has discovered a mysterious stranger, who, in consideration of the sum of five dollars, the use of a room and the loan of a pair of pumps and an accordion, proposes to instruct eighty persons in the following styles of dancing:

1. phany gentlemen's steps and 8 phany ladies steps.

2. Walkies. Ing in and Drene.

3. jolks, and 2 shortdrives.

4. 10 Contillons, including Dutch and French Contillons.

Obituary.

Col. Monroe is no more! It cannot be said our city was surprised by the speedy occurrence of the sad event; it had been known for months, was inevitable, and the dreaded occurrence had been for weeks, daily expected. Yet the announcement of the catastrophe could not be received but with a shock, a thrill throughout the community, and an emotion will have left an enduring impression.

JAMES MONROE was reared and educated in Frankfort; here entered upon life and spent his days. These days, it is true, were few. Seized by the relentless disease of those ever-active organs of life, he was cut down in the middle of his drama, and ruthlessly hastened off the stage in the prime of his life. But he performed his part while on the stage and filling no ordinary character, left a name to which his descendants will hereafter recur with pride. And he did leave descendants—but we forbear. He not only discharged with fidelity, honor, and ability, his position in the Legislature and other departments of the government of his State, but in defense of his country and her proud banner in the battle-field, he won laurels as imperishable as we trust will be the American devotion to the flag of the Union.

But we infer, from the notice of our contemporary of this city, that a more full sketch of this gallant officer may be expected in its columns, and will only add to this the proceedings of the Frankfort Bar in reference to the event we publish:

Death of James Monroe, Esq.

At a meeting of the members and officers of the Franklin bar, held at the Circuit Court Clerk's office, in the city of Frankfort, on the 21st of April, 1860, on motion of James Harlan, Thos. Lindsey was called to the chair, and James P. Metcalfe appointed secretary.

The chair appointed Jno. Rodman, A. J. James, and G. W. Cradock, a committee to draft resolutions, who reported the following, which were unanimously adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an All wise Providence to take from our midst Col. JAMES MONROE, a member of the Frankfort Bar.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore his loss to the legal profession in this city, and feel that in his death, Frankfort has lost a valuable citizen.

He was a kind husband, an affectionate father, a brave and tried soldier on the battle-field, and in all the relations of life has won for himself a reputation of which his friends and relations may justly be proud.

That we deeply sympathize with his family in their great affliction, and will, in a body, attend the funeral of our departed friend.

That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the Franklin Circuit Court, for entry upon its record, and that a copy be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

That these resolutions be published in the newspapers of this city.

The meeting then adjourned.

T. N. LINDSEY, Chmn.
J. P. METCALFE, Secy.

Governor's Veto—Meeting in Graves.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Graves county, held at the court-house in Mayfield, on the third Monday in April, 1860, being county court day, on motion of Lucian Anderson, A. H. Willingham was called to the chair, and J. M. Emerson appointed secretary.

The object of the meeting having been explained, the following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted, to wit:

Resolved, That we endorse the veto message of our able and distinguished Governor to the last Legislature, vetoing the bill to increase the capital of the Commercial Bank.

Resolved, That we have no sympathy for those papers in the State which have indirectly attacked the message of Gov. Magoffin, not having the boldness to attack it directly, and such papers do not represent the sentiments of the people of this county, nor of this Congressional District.

Resolved, That we take this occasion to endorse the course of our able and faithful Representative, J. W. Cook.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Louisville Democrat, Frankfort Yeoman, Lexington Statesman, and all the papers of the State favorable to the veto.

The meeting then adjourned.

A. H. WILLINGHAM, Chmn.
J. M. EMERSON, Secy.

DIVORCE LAWS IN INDIANA NOT LEGAL IN KENTUCKY.—During the late term of the Circuit Court in Covington, a suit was brought up for trial which tested the laws of divorce of Indiana when applied to a citizen of Kentucky. As we learn the incidents in the case, some two years ago, or thereabouts, an individual residing in Kenton county, by the name of Owen R. Powell, Esq., in the possession of a wife and child, emigrated to the State of Indiana, declared himself a citizen, and brought suit in one of the courts of that State for a divorce, and obtained it even before he had acquired citizenship. Having thus repudiated his wife, in accordance with the laws of Indiana, he came back to Kenton county, his actual residence, and married another woman, who has since added a younger son to his household.

In view of the fact that Mr. Powell had thus obtained a divorce, Mrs. Dorcas Powell, the repudiated wife, comes forward and makes an application in the Circuit Court for a divorce from her husband, and asking in her plea that alimony be allowed. The evidence in the case was heard, and when concluded, Judge Moore, in delivering his opinion, declared that the cause pursued by Mr. Powell, in going to the State of Indiana to procure a divorce from his wife, was all a farce; Powell was a citizen of Kentucky, and therefore no legal divorce could be granted by any Court in Indiana; the plaintiff, Mrs. Dorcas Powell, was then the legitimate wife of Owen R. Powell, and the Circuit Court over which he presided had no power to decree a divorce.

The result of the trial placed Mr. Powell in rather an unpleasant predicament, for according to the decision of an Indiana Court he had two wives, though a Kentucky Court allowed him but one. This decision of Judge Moore may deter others from committing the same illegal act.

President Buchanan's Letter to Robert J. Walker.

The much talked of letter of the President to Robert J. Walker, while Governor of Kansas, was brought out by the Coode Investigating Committee, and annexed is the document in full:

WASHINGTON, July 12, 1857.

MY DEAR SIR—I duly received your letter of 28 ultimo, on Friday last, and read it to the Cabinet; and then in session. The views which it contained were not calculated to assure us of your success, though we did not despair. Hence we may judge with what satisfaction an account of the proceedings of the National Democratic Convention held at Lecompton on the 3d inst., was received. The point on which your own success depends is the submission of the Constitution to the people of Kansas, and by the people I mean, and I have no doubt you mean, the actual bona fide residents, who have been long enough in the Territory to identify themselves with its fate. The Legislature determined three months as the period to entitle individuals to vote for or against the Constitution. It appears to me this would be reasonable. On the question of submitting the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas, I am willing to stand or fall. It is the principle of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, the principle of popular sovereignty, and the principle at the foundation of all popular Governments. The more it is discussed the stronger it will become. Should the Convention adopt this principle, all will be settled harmoniously, and with the blessing of Providence, you will return triumphantly from your arduous, important, and responsible station. The strictures of the Georgia and Mississippi Conventions will then pass away and be forgotten.

In regard to Georgia, our news from that State is becoming better every day. We have not yet had time to hear much from Mississippi. Should you answer the resolution of the latter, I would advise you to make the great principle of the submission of the Constitution to bona fide residents of Kansas conspicuously prominent. On that you will be irresistible. With the question of climate, every person is acquainted; and the more you insist upon this the less will our opponents urge that we are violating the principle of non-interference as the foundation of the Kansas-Nebraska bill. It is strange that people at a distance, who have no practical acquaintance with the condition of Kansas, should undertake to be wiser than those on the spot. It is beyond all question the true policy to build up a great Democratic party there to maintain the Constitution and laws, composed of Pro Slavery and Free State Democrats, and if the majority should be against Sharkey, to obtain such slaveholding provisions as will secure the rights of slaveholders in Missouri and other States, and maintain all laws guaranteeing the just rights of the South. You are right in your objective as to the cause of Judge Willard's appointment. We supposed it would be peculiarly acceptable to yourself, and that he might aid in carrying out your policy.

Col. Cummings has been appointed Governor of Utah. This will cause his place to be vacant, after the brief period required for settling on his business, and I sincerely shall be disposed to fill it by the appointment of Mr. Stevens. Gen. Harney has been ordered to command the expedition to Utah, but we must continue to have him with us, at least until you are out of the woods. Kansas is vastly more important at the present moment than that of Utah. The pressure upon me continues without intermission. I pray that the Divine Providence in which I place my trust may graciously preserve my life and health until the end of my term; but God's will be done in any event! With every sentiment of esteem, I remain always sincerely yours, (Signed) JAMES BUCHANAN.

THE ONLY DISCOVERY Worthy of any confidence for RESTORING

THE BALD AND GRAY.

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of
DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It conts.

NO PARAGEORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. For this reason, it commands itself as a specific for the cure of Children's Feeding, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Colic in the Head, and Croup, also for softening the gums, reducing fevers, and removing the heat of the body.

It has no equal—being an anti-purgative it is used with an equal success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from the弊害 of opiate medicines, you will be certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take note but Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless and contains the most delicate infant. Price 35 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Prepared only by

BLOOD FOOD

Healthy human Blood upon being always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard. Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Serofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the Red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The Blood Food is founded upon this Theory—hence its astonishing success.

Five PREPARATIONS

adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, or any affection whatever, of the Throat or Lungs inducing Consumption, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, and for the Removal of all Complaints arising from Over-use, General Debility, and Nervous Prostration. No. 2, for Liver Complaints, No. 3, for Dyspepsia. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Dr. W. H. Averill and immediately into the circulation, so that what you eat you assimilate. The No. 4 is for Female irregularities, Mysteria, Weaknesses, &c. See special directions for this. For Salt Rheum, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholera, & Bladder Complaints, take No. 5. In all cases the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the Blood Food $1 per bottle.
